2017 INCOSE Holiday Social Speaker

Mary Compton, Treasurer of the INCOSE Enchantment Chapter, Presenting “Lions, Zebras and Giraffes, Oh My! How I used System Engineering Processes to Plan and Execute an African Safari Vacation.”

Mary will discuss her use of Systems Engineering processes that she used to plan and execute an African safari:

- Planning
- Gathering information
- Identifying our requirements and constraints
- How we made decisions (trade-offs between options, etc.)
- What we did to prepare for the trip
- Photograph presentations to highlight the Safari
