Topic: Systems Engineering as Applied to Home Improvements

Biography:

Dave Mason has 27 years experience in the Aerospace Industry specializing in the assembly, integration, and testing of flight hardware. He led the development and verification of thermal vacuum test facilities simulating space environments to perform verification testing while operating in clean room environments. He performed several levels of Assembly, Integration, and Test (AIT) activities for assorted payloads that were subsequently integrated onto structures and launch vehicles. His emphasis included electro-optical sensors operating at a temperature of 35K where stray light and heat leaks are primary deterrents to operational success. These programs include NIRCcam, FAME, HIRDLS, and others.
