Writing Effective Requirements

INCOSE Meeting

International Council on Systems Engineering ● Cleveland Chapter ● Region IV

All Welcome ● Member Meeting ● 3rd Tuesday of the Month

Chapter Meeting

Who: INCOSE Cleveland-Northern Ohio Chapter

What: Open meeting with a special topic

When: Tuesday, April 19th

   Registration begins @ 5:45 PM

Where: Holiday Inn, Cleveland OH (W.150 & I-71)

Guest Speaker: Jim Hays @ 6:15 PM

Meeting Topic:
Writing Effective Requirements and using tools such as DOORS.

Abstract for the presentation:

The process of developing well written requirements is critical to any project. Many projects fail to deliver the proper number of concise decomposed requirements. The presentation shall demonstrate several best practices on writing and managing a project's hierarchy of requirements.

Jim Hays for the past seven (7) years, a Senior Systems Engineer, has worked for the IBM's Rational Software Group. Since 1982, Jim has dedicated his career to software technology.

As always, this is an open meeting; a free dinner is raffled to those who RSVP'd and who are in attendance; a free dinner will be awarded to one lucky sole. For INCOSE members to RSVP you will need to log into the INCOSE Connect site and click here for the survey.

The meeting will also be available as a Live Meeting, click here for the broadcasted presentation. For the meeting's audio, please call 1-800-375-2612 and use a participant code of 893334.

Note: The INCOSE members and non-members are all welcome to the local chapter meetings in the Cleveland Metropolitan area. The meetings are free and open to the public. For those in attendance, food and beverage purchases may be made. For non-members, if you are planning to attend, a non-binding RSVP is most helpful; email Anthony.Rus@Gmail.com
