

Collaborating Within INCOSE

Heidi Hahn, EWLSE Lead
*Los Alamos National Lab

Collaborating Within INCOSE Strategic Objectives

- To establish relationships with regions, chapters, working groups, and initiatives underway within INCOSE
- To collaborate with INCOSE leadership at all levels to establish mutually beneficial initiatives and actions across regions, chapters, working groups, projects and programs
- To support internal INCOSE groups in establishing charter statements and goals that support diversity and inclusion

Collaborating Within INCOSE Strategic Initiatives

- Survey INCOSE leadership at all levels to determine internal INCOSE needs related to EWLSE goals; use results to define mutually beneficial actions and initiatives
- Create a prioritized plan to establish relationships with internal INCOSE regions, chapters, working groups, projects and programs
- Coordinate the activities of EWLSE member volunteers who are also members of internal INCOSE groups to serve as EWLSE liaisons
- Share, adopt and adapt successful EWLSE related strategies and practices learned from both within and outside INCOSE
- Recognize, advocate for, and support ongoing INCOSE programs and initiatives, in support of EWLSE goals
- Provide EWLSE keynote speakers and panel members, submit and present papers on related research, and/or provide flyers and other resource materials in support of key INCOSE regional and chapter events