Policy Content

Committees of the Board of Directors
These committees are established under the provisions of Article V, Section 1 of the Bylaws. The members of such committees must be directors of the corporation, and they act with the authority of the Board of Directors with respect to specific authority granted them by the Board of Directors.

Directors serve on Committees at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, i.e., a Director’s term on a committee concludes when they are no longer a Director, a Director voluntarily resigns membership on a committee, the Board of Directors removes a Director from membership on a Committee, or an ad hoc Committee terminates.

Subcommittees may be formed under committees by the chair as deemed in the best interest of INCOSE.

- Standing Committees of the Board of Directors
  Except as otherwise specified, standing committee chairs are selected by majority vote of the Committee and they serve at the pleasure of the Committee.

  The standing committees of the Board of Directors are:
a. Executive Committee – The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors shall develop policy as directed by the Board of Directors, review status and operations, and provide guidance to the various Administrative Committees and the Operations Manager of INCOSE. The voting members of the Executive Committee shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer.

b. Budgeting and Planning as defined in FIN-101: Budget and Planning Committee Charter.

c. Grievance Committee as defined in ADM-109: Grievance Policy.

Advisory Committees
Advisory Committees do not act with Board authority. They make recommendations to the Board of Directors who shall then decide to accept the recommendation or not. These committees are established under the provisions of Article V, Section 3 of the Bylaws. They are designated by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in the resolution, members of an advisory committee shall be members of this corporation. Each such Committee may adopt rules for its own governance consistent with the rules set forth by the Board of Directors.

- Standing Advisory Committees

Except as otherwise specified, standing advisory committee chairs are selected by majority vote of the Committee and they serve at the pleasure of the Committee.

The standing advisory committees are:

a. Executive Search as defined in MGT-100: Executive Search Committee Charter.

b. Honors and Awards – The Honors and Awards Committee shall review Pioneer, Founders, and Outstanding Service Award nominations against the selection criteria in REC-105, REC-106, and REC-102, respectively, and make recommendations to the Board of Directors. The voting members of the Honors and Awards Committee shall consist of the INCOSE President-Elect, who shall Chair the Committee, the Technical Director, the Services Director, the Sector Directors, the Fellows Chair and the Chair of the Corporate Advisory Board.
c. Chapter Circle Awards – The Chapter Circle Awards Committee shall review all chapter awards nominations against the selection criteria in REC-104, and make recommendations to the Board of Directors. The chair of the Chapter Circle Awards Committee is appointed by the Sector Directors. Other members of the committee are recruited by the chair in the fourth quarter (Q4) of each year from the chapters in the form of a call for volunteers to assist with the evaluation of the Chapter Circle Award submissions. The committee operates at the pleasure of the BoD to perform the evaluations against the established award criteria and provide recommendations to the BoD through the senior Sector Director at the IW.

d. Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Advisory Committee as defined in DEI-100: Diversity, Equity and Inclusion.

- Ad hoc Advisory Committees

  Ad hoc committee chairs are appointed by the President and they serve at the pleasure of the President.

  The Ad hoc advisory committees are:

  a. A Fellows Selection Committee, as defined in REC-101, to review Fellows nominations for eligibility against the Fellow Award criteria and make recommendations to the Board of Directors.

  b. A Bylaws Committee to make reports and recommendations to membership at large for proposed amendments.

Special Committees

Special Committees are established under the provisions of Article V, Section 3 of the Bylaws. They are designated by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in the resolution, members of a special committee shall be members of this corporation. Each such Committee may adopt rules for its own governance consistent with the rules set forth by the Board of Directors.

- Standing Special Committees

  Except as otherwise specified, standing special committee chairs are selected by majority vote of the Committee and they serve at the pleasure of the Committee.

  The Standing Special committees are:

  a. Nominations and Elections as defined in ELC-100: Nominations and Elections Committee which gets its authority from Article III, Section 3 of the bylaws.
Administrative Committees

These committees are established under the provisions of Article V, Section 3 of the Bylaws. They are designated by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in the resolution, members of an administrative committee shall be members of this corporation. Each such Committee may adopt rules for its own governance consistent with the rules set forth by the Board of Directors. Members serve on committees according to the terms set forth by the rules of the Committee. Except as otherwise specified, Chairs and Co-Chairs are selected by their committees, approved by the President and serve terms of two (2) years.
